

PRESS ACCREDITATION REQUEST TO ACCESS THE VATICAN MUSEUMS

Journalists wishing to access the Vatican Museums must send an email request to the Press Office, stampa.musei@scv.va, or to the Press Office of the Holy See, accreditamenti@salastampa.va, at least 72 hours prior to the scheduled visit.

Applicants must indicate their name, surname, publication and telephone number. It will be necessary to attach a copy of the valid Order of Italian Journalists card or, for the foreign press, an equivalent Press Card. The access request is intended for journalists only and cannot be extended to family members and carers.

Journalists in possession of an ordinary accreditation at the Press Office of the Holy See can obtain free entry by contacting the reception and ticketing services (Office of Services and Public Relations) of the Vatican Museums. The access request is for journalists only and cannot be extended to family members and carers.

If a guided visit or a tour of the Vatican Gardens is required, it is necessary to pay for the additional services.

It is not possible to submit an accreditation request for Saturdays or during special openings on the last Sunday of every month.

The eventual ticket issuance does not imply the possibility of making audiovisual and/or photographic recordings, for which a specific authorisation is required.
